Proposed Revisions to the Common Rule for the Protection of Human Subjects in the Behavioral and Social Sciences: Consensus Study

Public Forum

Agenda

January 30, 2014
1:30pm – 3:30pm
Room 100
500 Fifth Street, NW ♦ Washington, DC 20001
(near Judiciary Square and Gallery Place)

1:15 REGISTRATION OPEN

1:30 WELCOME AND INTRODUCTIONS

Robert M. Hauser, NAS, Executive Director, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education

Barbara Wanchisen, Director, Board on Behavioral, Cognitive, and Sensory Sciences

Sponsor Remarks

Ed Dieterle, Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation
Daniel Goroff, Alfred P. Sloan Foundation

1:50 REPORT OVERVIEW AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Susan Fiske, NAS, Committee Chair, Princeton University

EXAMPLES AND DISCUSSION

2:20 Large-scale datasets as in education research, sociology, or demography

Felice Levine, Committee Member, American Education Research Association

2:40 Small-scale datasets, as in experimental psychology or behavioral economics

Susan Fiske, Committee Chair, Princeton University

3:00 Implications for IRBs and IRB administrators

Yonette Thomas, Committee Member, Association of American Geographers

3:20 CLOSING COMMENTS

Robert M. Hauser

3:30 ADJOURN

This study was sponsored by the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation, and the National Academy of Education

Board on Behavioral, Cognitive, and Sensory Sciences ♦ Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education ♦ National Research Council