Notice Regarding Open Sessions

This meeting is being held to gather information to help the committee conduct its study. This committee will examine the information and material obtained during this, and other public meetings, in an effort to inform its work. Although opinions may be stated and lively discussion may ensue, no conclusions are being drawn at this time; no recommendations will be made. In fact, the committee will deliberate thoroughly before writing its draft report. Moreover, once the draft report is written, it must go through a rigorous review by experts who are anonymous to the committee; the committee then must respond to this review with appropriate revisions, and the report must adequately satisfy the Academy's Report Review committee and the chair of the NRC before it is considered an NRC report. Therefore, observers who draw conclusions about the committee's work based on today's discussions will be doing so prematurely.

Furthermore, individual committee members often engage in discussion and questioning for the specific purpose of probing an issue and sharpening an argument. The comments of any given committee member may not necessarily reflect the position he or she may actually hold on the subject under discussion, to say nothing of that person's future position as it may evolve in the course of the project. Any inference about an individual’s position regarding findings or recommendations in the final report is, therefore also premature.

In addition to meetings, the committee may also solicit input from experts through other mechanisms such as electronic mail and white papers. Input from the general public is welcome, through one or both of these formats as well.

Questions about this meeting should be directed to Margaret Hilton, Study Director, at mhilton@nas.edu.
