

Fellowship Roundtable Agenda

September 7, 2012

National Academies

Room 100

500 Fifth Street, NW

Washington, DC 20001

8:30 Welcome – Dr. H. Ray Gamble, Director, Fellowships Office
Self-Introduction of Roundtable Participants

9:15 Title VI & Fulbright-Hays Program – Strategic Partnerships to Promote International Education and Study Abroad Fellowships

Co-Presenters:

Dr. KimOanh Nguyen-Lam, Program Director, International and Foreign Language Education Office, Office of Post-Secondary Education, U.S. Department of Education

Dr. Sonia Feigenbaum, Division Director, Hispanic-Serving Institutions, Office of Post-Secondary Education, U.S. Department of Education

10:30 Break

10:45 Emerging Leaders in Science and Society (ELISS), A Pilot Program at AAAS, “Preparing Graduate and Professional Students for Real-World Problem Solving”

Presenter: Kate Stoll, AAAS Science and Technology Policy Fellow, Division of Graduate Education, National Science Foundation

11:15 Discussion: Aspects of Evaluation of Program Effectiveness

Moderator: Dr. Connie L. McNeely, Associate Director of Fellowships, Fellowships Office

Discussants: Dr. Mary Ann Leung, Krell Institute
Dr. Margaret Petrochenkov, Vietnam Education Foundation

11:45 Discussion of Topics for May 2013 Roundtable

Recruitment During a Time of Economic Challenge: Answering the Question, “Will I be able to secure employment after I attain a doctoral degree?”

12:00 Invitation to Continue Discussions over Lunch in NAS Refectory

Adjourn