Forum for Children's Well-Being

Workshop on Fostering Children's Physical, Developmental and Social/Behavioral Health in the Face of the Opioid Crisis

June 6, 2019

National Academy of Sciences Building
2101 Constitution Avenue NW, Room 120
Washington, DC 20418

The Forum hosts this workshop with the following goals:

- Elevate innovative prevention and intervention programs that incorporate multisector and multigenerational approaches to promote the well-being of children and youth, and the treatment and recovery of their families impacted by the opioid epidemic.
  - Demonstrate policy approaches at the local, state, tribal, and federal levels that address the well-being of children, youth, and families impacted by the opioid epidemic throughout the lifecycle.
  - Broaden the conversation and policy setting toward intentional prevention, early intervention, and recovery in light of the nation's opioid epidemic.
