

Science, Technology, and Law Program
The National Academies
Eighth Meeting of the Science, Technology, and Law Panel
The Arnold and Mabel Beckman Center
Irvine, California
March 19-20, 2004

Friday, March 19, 2004—Huntington Room

CLOSED

8:00 Continental Breakfast

8:30 Welcome

Panel Co-chairs:

Donald Kennedy*
Richard A. Merrill*

8:45 Update on the OMB Peer Review Bulletin Workshop and Status of Bulletin

Workshop Chair:

Richard Meserve*

Status of Bulletin:

Fred Anderson*
Alan Morrison*
David Korn*

9:30 Update on Intellectual Property Rights in Genomic and Protein-Related Inventions

Study Vice Chair:

Rodrick McKelvie, Fish & Neave (via conference call)

9:45 Update on Intentional Human Dosing Studies for EPA Regulatory Purposes

Study Co-Chairs:

James F. Childress, John Allen Hollingsworth Professor of Ethics,
Professor of Medical Education, and Director, Institute for Practical Ethics, Department of Religious Studies, University of Virginia, (via conference call)
Michael R. Taylor, Senior Fellow, and Director, Risk, Resource, and Environmental Management, Resources for the Future

11:00 Food Safety: Issues in Science and Law

Speaker: Michael R. Taylor, Senior Fellow, and Director, Risk, Resource, and Environmental Management, Resources for the Future

12:00 Lunch

* Member of the Science, Technology, and Law Panel

OPEN

1:00 Science for Judges: Is there a role for the STL Program?

Speakers: Margaret Berger*
Shirley Abrahamson*
Barbara Rothstein, Director, Federal Judicial Center
Judith Resnik, Arthur Liman Professor of Law, Yale Law School, (via conference call)

2:15 The Vanishing Trial

Speakers: Joe Cecil*
Barbara Rothstein, Director, Federal Judicial Center
Judith Resnik, Arthur Liman Professor of Law, Yale Law School, (via conference call)

3:00 Break

3:15 OFAC Restrictions on Publication

Speaker: Allan Adler, Association of American Publishers

3:45 Tax Law and Conservation Easements—Finding the Right Balance

Speakers: Julia D. Mahoney, Associate Professor of Law, University of Virginia Law School
Federico Cheever, Associate Professor of Law, University of Denver Law School

5:15 Adjourn

6:30 Dinner at the Four Seasons Hotel, Newport Beach

Speaker: Ralph J. Cicerone, Chancellor, University of California-Irvine

* Member of the Science, Technology, and Law Panel

Science, Technology, and Law Program
The National Academies
Eighth Meeting of the Science, Technology, and Law Panel
The Arnold and Mabel Beckman Center
Irvine, California
March 19-20, 2004

Saturday, March 20, 2004—Huntington Room

CLOSED

8:00 Breakfast

8:30 Welcome

Co-chairs: Donald Kennedy*
Richard A. Merrill*

8:45 Discussion with Members Regarding Future Projects

OPEN

9:45 Regulatory Classifications of Carcinogens—Implications for Tort Litigation

Speakers: William H. Farland, Acting Deputy Assistant Administrator for Science, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency
Brian E. Henderson, Professor of Preventive Medicine, Professor of Neurology, Keck School of Medicine, USC
Richard O. Faulk, Gardere Wynne Sewell LLP
Tony Roisman, Research Fellow of Environmental Studies, Dartmouth College and National Legal Scholars Law Firm

12:00 Lunch

The Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act—An Obstacle to Scientific Understanding of the First Americans?

Speaker: Robert McC. Adams, Secretary Emeritus, Smithsonian Institute

2:00 Adjourn

* Member of the Science, Technology, and Law Panel