

DRAFT

Government-University-Industry Research Roundtable
National Academy of Sciences/National Academy of Engineering/Institute of Medicine
COUNCIL MEETING AGENDA, March 27-28, 2001
Washington, D.C.

Commercializing University Research: Aligning Incentives and Protecting the Research Enterprise

Tuesday Afternoon and Evening, March 27, NAS Building, 2101 Constitution Avenue, NW

4:00 PM Issue Groups (Workforce-Member's Room; Research Commercialization-227; Vitality-5)

5:30 PM Cocktail Reception: Rotunda

6:00 PM Dinner: Member's Room

How Can National Resources for Training Scientists and Engineers Be Optimally Allocated?

Paul Romer, Stanford University

Respondent: Bruce Alberts, National Academy of Sciences

Open Discussion

8:30 PM Adjourn

Wednesday Morning, March 28, Green Building, 2001 Wisconsin Avenue, NW, Room 130

8:00 AM Continental Breakfast

8:30 Opening Remarks (Joe Wyatt)

8:40 Research Commercialization Initiatives: Nanotechnology as a Case Study

Bob Gower, Carbon Nanotechnologies Inc.

Richard Siegel, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute

9:10 Discussion

9:45 Break

10:00 Are Policy Changes Needed to Address Conflict of Interest and Intellectual Property Issues Arising in University Research?

Joseph Martin, Harvard Medical School

10:45 Discussion

11:45 Next Steps and Issue Group Reports

12:30 Adjourn