

Rashmi Rangnath

Staff Attorney and Director, Global Knowledge Initiative
Public Knowledge

Biography

Rashmi is a Staff Attorney at Public Knowledge and Director of PK's Global Knowledge Initiative. Her current focus is on copyright and patent law issues. Prior to joining Public Knowledge, Rashmi was a part time Law Clerk for special projects as well as a student Intern, working on copyright and patent law issues. Ms. Rangnath has also worked at the Association of Research Libraries as a student intern, where she mainly worked on the orphan works project.

Rashmi Rangnath received her Bachelors in Academic Laws (B.A. equivalent) in 1998 and LL.B. (J.D. equivalent) in 2000 from Mysore University, Mysore, India. After getting married and coming to the U.S., Rashmi received her LL.M. degree in International Legal Studies with a specialization in International and Comparative Protection of Intellectual Property from American University Washington College of Law in 2006.